MISCELLANEOUS.

"PUBLIC INQUIRIES ACT."

WHEREAS I, the undersigned, Denis Murphy, one of His Majesty's Justices of the Supreme Court of British Columbia, of the City of Vancouver, Province of British Columbia, have been appointed by the Lieutenant-Governor in Council as sole Commissioner to inquire as follows:—

First: (a.) To ascertain (or to determine by what means it should be ascertained) who of those now practising as chiropractors in the Province are duly qualified chiropractors within the meaning of the "Medical Act":

(b.) To inquire whether or not any or all of the recognized schools or colleges of chiropractic, within the meaning of the "Medical Act," of which the said duly qualified chiropractors now practising in the Province are graduates, give courses in the subjects required for the practice of chiropractic, which are adequate to protect the public when undergoing from such persons treatment solely confined to the practice of chiropractic:

(c.) To recommend such legislation as may be deemed requisite to provide for the registration of such duly qualified chiropractors now practising in the Province, so that their practice for reward may be legalized when confined solely to chiropractic, and to provide for their control and regulation in the interest of the public:

Second: To recommend in the interests of the public the method of determining the qualifications to permit subsequent applicants to practise chiropractic, including the Board by whom the same shall be determined and the method and the extent of the examinations of such applicants; and in particular whether or not such qualifications shall be determined and examinations set by a Board comprised solely of those duly qualified chiropractors already authorized to practise, or by a Board comprised in part of members of the College of Physicians and Surgeons:

Third: Into the extent and nature of the practice of drugless healing (other than chiropractic) in all its branches, in the Province of British Columbia, and the nature of the legislation which may be necessary or advisable for the purpose of regulating and controlling the registration of drugless healers in the Province of British Columbia, and generally into all matters properly incidental to the foregoing:

I hereby give notice that I will hold the first meeting of the Commission at No 2 Court Room at the Law Courts, Georgia Street, Vancouver, B.C., on Tuesday, the 24th day of November, 1931, at 10 a.m.

Dated at Vancouver, B.C., the 24th day of October, 1931.

D. MURPHY,

Commissioner.

NOTICE is hereby given that "British Pacific Properties, Limited," was incorporated under the "Companies Act" on the 8th day of October, 1931.

The authorized capital of the Company is one hundred thousand dollars divided into ten thousand shares.

The address of its registered office is 1607-8 The Royal Bank Building, Vancouver, British Columbia.

The objects for which the Company is established are:—

(1.) To enter into and carry into effect with such, if any, modifications as may be agreed upon, an agreement in the terms of a draft agreement already prepared and for the purpose of identification initialed by Charles Henry Chambers, a Notary Public in and for British Columbia, and expressed to be made between Alfred James Towle Taylor as vendor and British Pacific Properties, Limited, as purchaser, and to acquire the properties and rights referred to in the said draft agreement upon the terms therein set forth, subject, however, to any such modification as the directors may consider expedient:

(2.) To purchase or otherwise acquire any land, tenements, hereditaments, or buildings, or any interest, rights, or easement therein, including occupation licences, and to develop and turn to account any land or property so acquired or in which the Company may at any time be interested, and in particular by laying out and preparing and developing the same for building or other purposes, constructing, altering, pulling down, decorating, maintaining, fitting up, and improving buildings, roads, and conveniences, and by planting, paving, draining, farming, cultivating, letting on building, mining, or other leases, or agreements for leases and tenancies, the Company's lands and the buildings thereon, and by advancing money to, or negotiating loans for, and entering into contracts and arrangements of all kinds with builders, tenants, and others, and by granting any easement, right, or privilege in or over the same, and by creating or entering into and varying building, town-planning, and development schemes:

(3.) To sell, grant options for the sale of, exchange, divide, lease, let, mortgage, dispose of, or deal with any lands, buildings, rights, or property for the time being of the Company or any part thereof, or the whole undertaking of the Company or any part thereof, or any share or interest therein; to consent to the widening, diversion, or dedication of any land used or to be used as a highway, and to grant or demise, with or without consideration, land or other property of the Company for any purposes which the Company shall think fit:

(4.) To appropriate and lay out any land for streets, roads, lanes, paths, bridges, and other means of communication spaces for the use gratuitously or upon payment of the public or of individuals, and to construct, erect, and maintain streets, roads, lanes, paths, bridges, and other means of communication upon or serving lands of the Company, together with and including pavements, boulevards, sidewalks, fencing, sewers, drains, water-mains, watercourses, gas-mains, conduits, electrical transmission and power lines, and any and all other works deemed necessary or desirable in connection therewith:

(5.) To construct, erect, work, equip, and maintain, either by itself or other parties, waterworks, gasworks, electric-light works, brick-kilns, quarries, buildings, houses, flats, shops, hotels, restaurants, casinos, swimming-baths, and all other works, erections, and things of any description either upon lands of the Company or upon other lands, and which can conveniently be erected and maintained in connection with the purposes of the Company:

(6.) To carry on business as auctioneers, land agents, house and estate agents, appraisers and valuers, brokers and commission agents, and dealers in and producers of farm and garden produce of all kinds:

(7.) To carry on the business of contracting in all its branches, builders, manufacturers of and dealers in builders' materials and requisites, timber merchants, engineers (subject to the provisions of the "Engineering Act"), founders, smiths, machinists, manufacturers, and warehousemen:

(8.) To carry on the business of electricians, manufacturers, workers, or dealers in electricity, motor power and light, and any business in which the application of electricity or any like power, or any power that can be used as a substitute therefor, is or may be useful, convenient, or ornamental, or any other business of a like nature, and to produce and to accumulate electricity and electro-motor forces or other similar agency, and supply the same for the production, transmission, or use of any lighting, heating, motive or other power as may be thought advisable, and to light streets, public places, public or private buildings, factories, mines, ships, lighthouses, railways, tramways, and other places and things by means of electricity, or to enable the same to be lighted, and to carry on the business of suppliers of light, heat, and power and carriers of passengers and goods, and to acquire the right to use or manufacture and put up telephones, telegraphs, phonographs, dynamos, accumulators, and all apparatus now known or that may hereafter be invented connected with the generation, accumulation, distribution, supply, and employment of electricity or any power that can be used as a substitute therefor, including cables, wires, appliances for connecting apparatus at a distance with other apparatus, and including the formation of exchanges or centres:

(9.) To carry on the business of hotel, tavern, and lodging-house keepers, reading-rooms, billiard and recreation rooms and amusement places, hirers of motor-cars and other vehicles, carriers by land, merchandisers, storekeepers, and general merchants:

(10.) To purchase, take on lease, or otherwise acquire grants, concessions, leases, claims, licences, or other interests in mines, mining rights, mineral properties, water rights, and either absolutely or conditionally, and either solely or jointly with others, and to apply for and acquire any statutory or other powers, rights, or concessions; to win, work, convert, and dispose of any mineral or mineral property to the Company:

(11.) To apply for, secure, acquire, exercise, carry out, and enjoy any charter, licence, power, authority, franchise, concession, rights, and privileges for any governmental, municipal, or other authority (supreme, local, or otherwise); to apply for, promote, and obtain from any Government or any other authority (municipal, local, or otherwise) any Statute, by-law, ordinance, order, regulation, or other enactment or authorization that may seem necessary or desirable to the Company, or calculated, directly or indirectly, to benefit the Company:

(12.) To purchase, acquire, apply for, hold, use, dispose of, and turn to account any property, plant, machinery, appliances, stocks, goods, articles, and things, and shares or stock in any company or undertaking, and any options, rights, and other privileges for any purpose which can conveniently be dealt with in connection with the purposes of the Company:

(13.) To lend money to any person or persons, firm, or incorporated body upon any terms and in such manner and for such purpose as the Company may determine:

(14.) To act as agents for others; to undertake agencies for loan companies and insurance companies:

(15.) To acquire and undertake the whole or any part of the business, property, and liabilities of any person, firm, or body corporate carrying on any business which the Company is authorized to carry on, or possessed of property suitable for the purposes of the Company:

(16.) To promote any company or companies for the purpose of taking over, acquiring, or working the undertaking and property of the Company or any part thereof, or of carrying on a similar business, with power to assist such company or companies in every way, and either by taking shares, financing or lending money, or providing capital or preliminary expenses or otherwise:

(17.) To subscribe for, purchase, invest in, or otherwise acquire, own, hold, sell, transfer, assign, dispose of, handle, and deal in or with shares, stocks, bonds, debentures, debenture stock, or other security of any Government, municipality, school corporation, or other public body, or of any company or duly incorporated body, including any chartered bank of Canada:

(18.) To borrow money on any terms and in any manner and for any purpose, and in particular by debentures or debenture stock (perpetual or otherwise) or notes, or with or without security, and to mortgage or charge all or any property of the Company and its uncalled capital for the time being or the whole undertaking of the Company or any part thereof:

(19.) To draw, make, accept, endorse, execute, issue, and negotiate promissory notes, bills of exchange, bills of lading, warrants, and other negotiable or transferable instruments:

(20.) To raise and assist in raising money for, and to aid by way of bonus, loan, promise, endorsement, guarantee of debentures or other securities or otherwise, any body corporate, wheresoever incorporated, with which the Company may have business relations or proposes to have dealings; to guarantee the contracts of any person, firm, or body corporate having dealings with the Company or with whom the Company proposes to have dealings:

(21.) To allot and issue fully paid shares, bonds, and debentures of the Company for payment, either in whole or in part payment, of any property or rights acquired by the Company, or for services rendered or other valuable consideration:

(22.) On any sale, disposition, or arrangement, to accept payment in whole or in part in cash, shares, debentures, or other securities whatsoever, and subject or not to any restriction as to transfer or otherwise, and to guarantee the title to or quiet enjoyment of any property, either absolutely or subject to any qualifications or conditions, and to indemnify any person in respect of any encumbrances, burdens, or outstanding rights.

The authorized capital of the Company is fifty thousand dollars, divided into five thousand shares.

The address of its registered office is 918 Government Street, Victoria, British Columbia.

The objects for which the Company is established are:—

(1.) To acquire a debt of $25,000 due and owing by The Larson Timber Company, Limited, and secured by its promissory note in favour of D. M. Hyman Securities Corporation, together with the said promissory note, and with a view thereto to enter into the agreement referred to in clause 4 of the Company's articles of association, and to carry the same into effect with or without modification:

(2.) To acquire from The Larson Timber Company, Limited, timber licences numbered 420, 421, 1499, and 1500, together with the benefit of and all the said Company's interest in, to, and under an agreement dated the 10th day of April, 1929, between The Larson Timber Company, Limited, of the one part and the Kelley Logging Company,

Limited, of the other part, and to observe and carry out the provisions of said agreement:

(3.) To purchase or otherwise acquire, sell, and deal in other timber licences and timber leases and other timber lands:

(4.) To carry on the business of timber merchants, loggers, sawmill and shingle-mill owners, lumbermen and lumber merchants in any or all of their branches:

(5.) To prepare for market, buy, sell, and deal in sawlogs, shingle-bolts, timber, lumber, and wood of all kinds, and to manufacture lumber, timber, shingles, lath, and all articles and materials in the manufacture whereof timber, lumber, or wood is used:

(6.) To purchase, lease, or otherwise acquire, maintain, operate, and improve sawmills, shingle-mills, and other buildings, plant and machinery of every description:

(7.) To construct, acquire, hold, maintain, use, and operate booms, dolphins, dams, aprons, slides, gates, and other works for the purpose of holding, storing, driving, rafting, towing, and all purposes incidental to the reception, safe-keeping, and transmission of timber, sawlogs, and other wood:

(8.) To construct, improve, maintain, develop, work, manage, and operate logging-railways, logging-roads, chutes, works as defined by the "Water Act" of the Province of British Columbia, wharves, piers, and other works and conveniences which the Company may think, directly or indirectly, conducive to any of its objects or powers:

(9.) To clear and remove obstructions from any lake, river, creek, or stream, and to do all things necessary to make the same clear and fit for rafting and driving thereon logs, lumber, rafts or crafts, and for such purposes to blast rocks, deepen channels, remove shoals or other impediments, or otherwise improve the floatability of any river, lake, creek, or stream:

(10.) To enter into agreements with any other company for the transportation of such other company's logs, lumber, equipment, and supplies over any logging-railway, logging-road, chute, or flume constructed by this Company, or for the transportation of this Company's logs, lumber, equipment, and supplies over any logging-railway, logging-road, chute, or flume constructed by such other company, on such terms and for such consideration as may be agreed upon:

(11.) To buy, sell, repair, build, charter, hire, and operate steamers, tugs, barges, scows, ships, and other vessels, and to employ the same in connection with the Company's business:

(12.) To establish, operate, and maintain stores, boarding-houses, restaurants, trading-posts, and to carry on a general mercantile business:

(13.) To purchase, take on lease or in exchange, or otherwise acquire, sell, dispose of, lease, and deal in real and personal property of all kinds, and in particular lands, buildings, hereditaments, foreshore rights, mines, undertakings, mortgages, and any interest in real and personal property:

(14.) To survey and lay out any lands or foreshore in which the Company has any interest into a townsite or townsites, lots or blocks, and to lay, make, construct, maintain, improve, manage, and work all roads, streets, sidewalks, bridges, sewers, wharves, docks, buildings, works, and conveniences of any and every description as the Company may deem advisable for the development, directly or indirectly, of the Company's property:

(15.) To develop the resources of and turn to account any lands, buildings, mines, timber lands, or other property of the Company for the time being in such manner as the Company may think fit, and in particular by clearing, draining, fencing, subdividing, building, improving, farming, mining, and by promoting immigration, and establishing towns, townsites, and settlements:

(16.) To grant or dedicate lands of the Company to any municipality or to the public as a park or parks for any public or private purposes advantageous to the Company's property:

(17.) To undertake and carry on the business of real-estate agents, financial agents, insurance agents, and estate agents:

(18.) To carry on the business of a waterworks company in all its branches:

(19.) To carry on the business of an electric light company and a power company in all its branches:

(20.) To apply for, obtain, purchase, lease, or otherwise acquire and hold water, water records, water licences, water rights and franchises, and to supply and utilize water for domestic, water-works, steam, fluming, industrial power, clearing streams, and storage purposes or any other purpose for which water may be supplied or utilized:

(21.) To purchase, lease, or otherwise acquire, construct, equip, operate, and maintain water-works, electrical works, generating plant, works as defined by the "Water Act" of the Province of British Columbia, and other appliances and conveniences as are necessary and proper for generating electric or any other form of developed power, or distributing water:

(22.) To have, take, exercise, and enjoy all the rights, powers, privileges, and advantages created, provided by and conferring on all licensees of water, including Class C licensees of water, and power companies by the "Water Act" of the Province of British Columbia or any amendments thereof, or any other Act passed in substitution thereof or as an extension thereof:

(23.) To buy or otherwise acquire and hold, sell, or deal with or in any stocks, shares, securities, or obligations of any Government, authority, corporation, or company which may be considered capable of being profitably held or dealt in or with by the Company:

(24.) To lend money to such persons, firms, or corporations and upon such terms as may be deemed expedient, with power to take security for the repayment of the same or any other indebtedness owing to the Company, and to acquire by purchase or otherwise, any property or assets which may be pledged with the Company as security for such loan or indebtedness, and to resell the same, and to guarantee the contracts of any such person firm or corporation.

None of such subclauses or the objects therein specified or the powers thereby conferred shall be deemed subsidiary or auxiliary merely to the objects mentioned in the first or any other subclause of this clause, but the Company shall have full power to exercise all or any of the powers conferred by any part of this clause in any part of the world, and notwithstanding that the business, undertaking, property, or acts proposed to be transacted, acquired, dealt with, or performed do not fall within the objects of the first or any other subclause of this clause.

The Company has excluded from its memorandum of association clauses (g) and (j) of subsection (1) of section 22 of the "Companies Act."

LEGISLATIVE ASSEMBLY.

PRIVATE BILLS.

EXCERPT FROM STANDING ORDERS RELATING TO PRIVATE BILLS.

100. (1.) All applications to the Legislative Assembly for Private Bills of any nature whatsoever shall require the publication of a notice clearly and distinctly specifying the nature and object of the application, and when the application refers to any proposed work, indicating sufficiently the location of the work, to be signed by or on behalf of the applicant.

(2.) Such notice shall be published in the British Columbia Gazette and once a week in one leading daily newspaper freely circulating in all parts of the Province. The notice in such newspaper to appear on Wednesday of each week.

(3.) When the proposed Bill is of such a nature that it may particularly affect one or more electoral districts, the notice shall furthermore be published once a week if possible in some newspaper in every electoral district affected, or if there be no newspaper published therein, then in a newspaper published in the electoral district nearest thereto.

(4.) The publication of such notice shall in all cases be continued for a period of four weeks during the interval of time between the close of the next preceding Session and the consideration of the petition.

97. No petition for any Private Bill shall be received by the House after the first ten days of each Session, nor may any Private Bill be presented to the House after the first three weeks of each Session, nor may any report of any Standing or Select Committee upon a Private Bill be received after the first four weeks of each Session, and no motion for the suspension or modification of this Standing Order shall be entertained by the House until the same has been reported on by the Committee on Standing Orders, or after reference made thereof at a previous sitting of the House to the Standing Committees charged with the consideration of Private Bills, who shall report thereon to the House. And if this rule shall be suspended or modified as aforesaid, the promoters of any Private Bill which is presented after the time hereinbefore limited, or for which the petition has been received after the time hereinbefore limited, shall in either case pay double the fees required in respect of such Bill by this rule, unless the House shall order to the contrary.

98. (1.) Any person seeking to obtain any Private Bill shall deposit with the Clerk of the House, eight clear days before the opening of the Session:—

- (a.) A printed copy of such Bill;
- (b.) A copy of the petition to be presented to the House;
- (c.) Copies of the notices published, with publication proved by a statutory declaration or affidavit to the satisfaction of the Clerk of the House.

(2.) At the time of depositing the Bill and petition the applicant shall also pay to the Clerk of the House the sum of three hundred dollars.

(3.) If a copy of the Bill, petition, and notices proved as aforesaid shall not have been so deposited in the hands of the Clerk of the House at least eight clear days before the opening of the Session or if the petition has not been presented to the House within the first ten days of the Session, the amount to be paid to the Clerk shall be six hundred dollars. If the Bill shall not pass second reading one-half of the fees shall be returned.

101. Every petition signed by an agent or attorney in fact shall be accompanied by the authority of such agent or attorney in fact, and the petition shall not be deemed to be filed with the Clerk until this is done.

102. Before any petition praying for leave to bring in a Private Bill for the erection of a toll-bridge is received by the House, the person or persons intending to petition for such Bill shall, upon giving the notice prescribed by Standing Order 100, also at the same time and in the same manner give notice of the rates which they intend to ask, the extent of the privilege, the height of the arches, the interval between the abutments or piers for the passage of rafts or vessels, and mentioning also whether they intend to erect a drawbridge or not, and the dimensions of the same.

103. (1.) All Private Bills for Acts of incorporation shall be so framed as to incorporate by reference to the clauses of the general Acts relating to the details to be provided for by such Bills:

Special grounds shall be established for any proposed departure from this principle, or for the introduction of other provisions as to such details, and a note shall be appended to the Bill indicating the provisions thereof in which the general Act is proposed to be departed from. Bills which are not framed in accordance with this Standing Order shall be recast by the promoters and reprinted at their expense before any Committee passes upon the clauses.

(2.) Every Bill for an Act of incorporation, where a form of model Bill has been adopted, shall be drawn in accordance with the model Bill (copies of model Bills may be obtained from the Clerk of the House). Any provisions contained in any such Bill which are not in accord with the model Bill shall be inserted between brackets or underlined, and shall be so printed.

(3.) Any exceptional provisions that it may be proposed to insert in any Bill shall be clearly specified in the notice of application for same.

107. All Private Bills shall be prepared by the parties applying for the same, and printed in small-pica type, twenty-six ems by fifty ems, on good paper, in imperial octavo form, each page when folded measuring $10\frac{3}{4}$ inches by $7\frac{1}{2}$ inches. There shall be a marginal number every fifth line of each page; the numbering of the lines is not to run on through the Bill, but the lines of each page are to be numbered separately. Three hundred copies of each Bill shall be deposited with the Clerk of the House immediately before the first reading. If amendments are made to any Bill during its progress before the Committee on Private Bills, or through the House, such Bill shall be reprinted by the promoters thereof.

In the case of Bills to Incorporate Companies, in addition to the fee of $300 mentioned in Rule 98, fees calculated on the capital of the company are payable at the same time. Further particulars can be had on application to the undersigned.

All cheques in payment of fees must be certified.

Dated May 1st, 1930.
